

The small arrows indicate if it is moving due to a jump. The thicker arrows indicate the path the program would take if it just fell through without jumping. The small arrow for candidateCheck that loops back is because this label gets jumped back to at the end of it.

